The Democratic party just won historic majorities in both houses of the state legislature, winning 29 of 40 seats in the State Senate and 60 of 80 seats in the State Assembly. In addition, Democrats hold both US Senate seats and 42 of the State's 53 Congressional seats and every state constitutional office. What are the public policy ramifications to this one party rule? What opportunities and challenges does this present for organized labor? Does California's Blue Tsunami indicate any particular trends for the Western United States?
